Members are informed that they may submit the notices of Starred and Unstarred Questions for Sixth Session of 17th Lok Sabha from today i.e. Friday, 2nd July, 2021. Notices for a particular date of sitting received upto 1000 hours of the date of holding Ballot for that sitting will be included in the said Ballot. Where the notices of Starred and Unstarred questions are received before fifteen days from the day for which they are intended to be included in the List of Questions, they will be deemed to have been received at 1000 hours on the 15th

Ballot Results of Notices of Questions on Lok Sabha Website

Members are informed that Ballot results of Notices of Questions (both Starred and Unstarred) will be made available on the Lok Sabha website. Since the information has been put under restricted circulation, a login page has been created for the purpose which can be accessed through the following path:

loksabha.nic.in → Questions → Ballot List

Guidelines to use this facility:

For the convenience of the Members, a dropdown list of names of Members participating in the Ballot has been created against the 'User id' box. Members may just click in the box and select their names as 'User id'. For the Password, the IC number of the Members has been preset in three digits. If the IC number of a Member is in single or the double digit, Zero (0) digit is accordingly required to be prefixed to make up the total of three. For example, if the IC number is '1' or '11', the same is required to be entered as '001' or '011' respectively as Password. Finally, a randomly generated captcha number has to be entered before the 'Submit' command is given to access the desired information.

Hard copies of Ballot results are also available in the Parliamentary Notice Office (PNO) of Lok Sabha.

Notices of Questions

Attention of the Members is invited to the following paragraph in the "Handbook for Members":-

"10(2) (xii) Notices of questions should be clear, self-contained and complete. Questions which are illegibly handwritten are liable to be returned to the members. Proper names wherever occurring in the text of questions may be written in block letters."

Sometimes notices of questions tabled by the Members are illegibly written or typed/handwritten on a separate sheet of paper and stapled/pasted on the prescribed/printed form. Such notices which are not in order are returned to the Members.

Members are, therefore, requested kindly to have the notices typed or handwritten legibly on the printed proforma itself. Every notice of question which is tabled on the printed form should be signed in ink by the Member. Members are requested kindly to indicate their names in CAPITAL LETTERS and the IC Number at appropriate place in the notices tabled by them.

Notice Period and Number of Questions

Members are informed that in accordance with Rule 33 of 'Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha' fifteen clear days have been prescribed for tabling notices of Questions. Further, according to latest Direction 10-B by the Speaker, Lok Sabha, a Member is permitted to table not more than five notices of Questions, for a given date. Members are requested to indicate the Order of Preference at the appropriate place, in the Question proforma including online notices.

Members are requested not to table more than 5 notices for a particular date.

Addressing of Notices of Questions

It has been observed that sometimes Members raise two or more different and unrelated subjects, involving more than one Ministry/Department in one notice of question. This causes administrative inconvenience to the Ministry/Department. Accordingly, Members are requested to address their notices of questions appropriately to one Ministry/Department only.

Demarcation of Responsibilities in Government of India

At times, notices of questions tabled by the Members are addressed to Ministers who are not concerned with the subject-matter thereof. This necessitates transfer of questions from one Ministry to another causing avoidable inconvenience to the Members themselves. They may, therefore, address the notices of questions to the Ministers who are responsible for their subject matter. For this purpose, the Members may refer to the link "Demarcation of Responsibilities in Government of India" available on the Lok Sabha Website which is accessible through the following path:

loksabha.nic.in → Questions → Home → Demarcation of Responsibilities in Government of India

It indicates the subjects for which the various Ministers are responsible for answering questions in Lok Sabha.

Procedure regarding Questions

Members are informed that the notices of Questions can be given after issuance of summons. In the wake of COVID-19 pandemic and also to achieve the objective of paperless Parliament, the Members are requested to submit the notices of Questions through Members' Portal only. However, the printed forms are also available in the Parliamentary Notice Office.

The procedure for Questions is governed by Rules 32 to 54 of the 'Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha' and Directions 10 to 18 of the 'Directions by the Speaker, Lok Sabha'. In particular, attention is invited to the following provisions of Rules/Directions concerning admissibility of notices of Questions:-

Speaker to decide admissibility

43(1). The Speaker shall decide whether a question, or a part thereof, is or is not admissible under these rules and may disallow any question, or a part thereof, when in the opinion of the Speaker, it is an abuse of the right of questioning or is calculated to obstruct or prejudicially affect the procedure of the House or is in contravention of these rules.

Admissibility of Questions

- (xvii) it shall not raise matters under the control of bodies or persons not primarily responsible to the Government of India;
- (xviii) it shall not ask for information on matter which is under adjudication by a court of law having jurisdiction in any part of India;
- (xix) it shall not relate to a matter with which a Minister is not officially concerned;
- (xx) it shall not refer discourteously to a friendly foreign country;
- (xxi) it shall not seek information about matters which are in their nature secret such as composition of Cabinet Committees, Cabinet discussions, or advice given to the President in relation to any matter in respect of which there is a constitutional, statutory or conventional obligation not to disclose information;
- (xxii) it shall not ordinarily ask for information on matters which are under consideration of a Parliamentary Committee; and
- (xxiii) it shall not ordinarily ask about matters pending before any statutory tribunal or statutory authority performing any judicial or quasi-judicial functions or any commission or court of enquiry appointed to enquire into, or investigate, any matter but may refer to matters concerned with procedure or subject or stage of enquiry, if it is not likely to prejudice the consideration of the matter by the tribunal or commission or court of enquiry.

Direction 10-A. Besides the conditions of admissibility of questions mentioned in Rule 41, a question shall be inadmissible on any of the following grounds:-

- (i) it seeks information on matters which tend to encourage fissiparous and divisive tendencies and weaken the unity and integrity of the country;
- (ii) it relates to a matter of day-to-day administration or tends to further the interest of an individual or a few individuals;
- (iii) it relates to a matter falling primarily within the jurisdiction of the Chief Election Commissioner, CAG, courts and other such functionaries;
- (iv) it relates to petitions and memoranda received by Ministers which are not of public importance;
- (v) it relates to a matter under negotiation with a government of other country and its disclosure may affect the course of negotiations to the detriment of the national interests; and
- (vi) it relates to a matter within the jurisdiction of the Speaker.

Members are requested to kindly take note of the above provisions while tabling notices of Questions so as to avoid disallowance of the questions on the above grounds.

Questions of Excessive Length

Attention of Members is invited to Rule 41(2) (vii) of the 'Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha' which is reproduced below:-

"41(2) The right to ask a question is governed by the following conditions, namely:-

* * * * *

(vii) it shall not ordinarily exceed 150 words."

Sometimes notices of questions tabled by the Members are of excessive length and these have either to be disallowed or referred back to the Members.

Members are, therefore, requested to keep in view the above provisions, while tabling notices of questions.

Admissibility of Questions seeking information upto Block or District levels about implementation of Centrally Sponsored Programmes/Schemes

As information about block or district-wise outlays/expenditure/physical targets/achievements is primarily the concern of State Government, such information is not normally reported to or monitored by the Union Government. Members are, therefore, informed that questions seeking information about implementation of various Centrally Sponsored Programmes/Schemes at block or district levels are ordinarily inadmissible.

Members are, therefore, requested to keep in view the above position, while tabling notices of questions.

Questions on Newspaper Reports

Sometimes newspaper reports including vernacular newspaper reports are referred to in the notices of questions tabled by the Members without indicating the place of edition of such newspapers. As many of such news-items particularly vernacular newspapers are not easily traceable, the notices are returned to the Members to make them specific or to furnish a copy of press clipping referred to in such notices for processing them.

Members are, therefore, requested kindly to enclose a copy of the press clipping with the notices of questions, which have the reference of newspaper reports.

Treatment of Notices of Questions in Excess of 230

Members are informed that in accordance with Rule 45, not more than 230 questions are to be included in the list of questions for written answers on any one day. Such notices of questions in Excess of 230 stand lapsed. However, the copies of notices of Questions, in Excess of 230 shall be provided to the Members, if so, requested by them.

Status of Notices of Questions on Lok Sabha Website

Members are informed that Status of Notices of Questions is available on the Lok Sabha website. Since the information has been put under restricted circulation, a login page has been created for the purpose which is accessible through the following path:

Guidelines to use this facility:

For the convenience of the Members, a dropdown list of names of Members, who have tabled notices of questions, has been created against the 'User id' box. Members may just click in the box and select their names as 'User id'. Whereas IC number of the Members has been preset as Password and the same will be in three digits. If the IC number of a Member is in single or double digit, Zero (0) digit is accordingly required to be prefixed to make up the total of three. For example, if the IC number is '1' or '11', the same is required to be entered as '001' or '011' respectively as Password. Finally, a randomly generated captcha number has to be entered before clicking 'Submit' key to access the search option page. As Members are aware, at present under the provisions of 'Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha', every notice is required to be given in writing and signed and the same should be submitted in Parliamentary Notice Office. As an initiative towards e-Parliament and paperless Secretariat, an e-portal namely Members' Portal was launched on 17th July, 2016 for the benefit of the Members. This portal is offering several online services to the Members including submission of notices for various parliamentary devices in electronic form, online references, etc.

In the wake of Covid-19 pandemic, Members are requested to submit their notices of Questions through Members' Portal only in accordance with Bulletin Part-II Para No. 3739 dated 17th July, 2016.
