To,

All Members/All Members of the COA

Dear Sir,

Subject : DGTR- Important Check-points in Anti-dumping Investigations against Indian Exports

We wish to inform that the Trade Defence Wing, Directorate General Of Trade Remedies (DGTR), Department of Commerce is reviewing the important Check-points in Anti-dumping Investigations against Indian Exports.

Trade Defence Wing in Directorate General of Trade Remedies is in the process of analysing the Anti-dumping investigations conducted by different investigation Authorities against Indian Exporters/ Domestic Industry. This exercise is being undertaken to understand the procedures followed by the other Investigating Authorities and to see if are they complying with the WTO norms or not.

For the purpose mentioned above, DGTR have provided us the enclosed Proforma to be circulated to exporters and producers who have been subject to Anti-dumping Investigations.

Further, it is requested to fill in the details regarding each investigation wherein the exporters/ producers/ associations have participated and provide feedback regarding any discrepancies or WTO incompatibility faced in those investigations.

Concerned member-exporters are requested to revert with their submission (duly filled Proforma) on or before 20th May 2019 to the undersigned at bharti@plexconcil.org.

Your early responses will be appreciated and enable us collate the responses and submit to DGTR for examination.

With best regards,
Yours sincerely,

Bharti Parave
(Sr. Executive)
