To,

All the members of Plexconcil / COA

Sub : India-Israel Trade FTA

This has reference to the proposed India-Israel Free Trade Agreement (FTA), Israel has now sent a revised priority list on which they are seeking elimination in customs duty by India.

We further wish to inform you that based on Department of Commerce internal analysis, the draft modalities (elimination with time period of phasing i.e. 5/10/15 years, reduction (or RED) to a specified end duty over 10 years or exclusion) of India based on existing FTA categories, specific inputs by stakeholders for other FTAs (like RCEP), global exports of Israel (GE) and global imports for India (GM) over the last 3 years on selected tariff lines pertaining to our council purview is attached herewith.

Members are requested to provide their inputs including justifications for keeping the specific tariff line in a specific category by 30th January, 2019 to the undersigned at bharti@pleconcil.org.

With best regards,

Yours sincerely,

Bharti Parave
