Mr. Jaswanth Soundarapandian, Regional Director, highlighted the concerns of the Plastic Industry, with regard to:

- GST Issues - Delayed refunds hampering exporter-members' working capital, particularly with the tightening of credit by banks.
- bMEIS Scrips were permitted for payment of all types of Customs duties (Basic+CVD+Additional Customs Duty) in the pre-GST era. However, post-GST, the MEIS Scrips are only permitted for payment of Basic Customs Duty, resulting in blocking of funds and hence adversely impacting cash flow / working capital. MEIS Scrips should be eligible for payment of full customs duty including IGST to avoid working capital flow, particularly for the MSME sector.
- The impact of high cost of transportation due to high fuel costs and infrastructural bottlenecks on plastic exporters. Plastic goods being light weight, but voluminous, involved paying high transportation and freight costs. Exporters also expressed concern over RFID e-sealed containers being opened and examined again at the Port, resulting in higher costs and shipment delays.
- The Tamil Nadu Government plans to implement a ban on single-use and disposable plastic bags wef 01st January, 2019. Mr. D.K. Sekar, the Zonal Additional Director General of Foreign Trade, Chennai, chaired the meeting. Mr. Benjamin Cherian, Panel Chairman (Human Hair Panel), gave an overview of the Human Hair trade and exports from India, and listed out the factors hampering export of human hair from India. He said under-invoicing of export consignments by few unscrupulous Indian exporters, including Chinese and Myanmar nationals/agents, who misuse their visa status, is leading to money laundering / hawala transactions, thereby hampering genuine exporters’ efforts. He said that export invoices are replaced in the port of import in China and Myanmar and a lesser value declared to evade taxes at the country of import, thereby leading to unfair pricing and competitiveness to genuine Indian exporters. These unscrupulous players were also willing to forgo the 5% incentive under the MEIS Scheme of the Government in order to smuggle and receive payment through the hawala mechanism.

The exporters' representatives also said that the illegal export of raw hair (Goli) without processing has resulted in loss of jobs in lakhs, in villages particularly among women who are employed to clean and process the raw hair (Goli). The labour-intensive industry, is clustered mainly in Eluru (Andhra Pradesh), Koppal (Karnataka), Midnapur & Mushirabad (West Bengal) and in several other places in Delhi, UP, Rajasthan and Tamil Nadu which face rampant job loss and unemployment.

Mr. Benjamin suggested that the DGFT should fix a Minimum Export Price (MEP) for both worked/dressed hair (HS Code 6703) and unworked hair (HS Code 0501) as a solution to the problem of under-invoicing by unscrupulous exporters and smugglers. He also suggested that stringent penal action must be taken against the illegal immigration by Chinese nationals misusing their visa status. The industry representatives requested the Zonal Additional DGFT to take up this issue for the betterment of the trade.

The Chairman, Mr. D.K. Sekar, Zonal Additional DGFT, expressed that some of the hair industry's suggestions would affect the ease of doing business and requested the Human Hair Association to furnish further data with regard to the issues for action by concerned Government departments/agencies.

A meeting chaired by Mr. Shyamal Misra, IAS, Joint Secretary to the Government of India was held to address some major issues that were presented by the DS. These included:

- (a) Reduction in import duty from 2% to 0% for intermediates (EDC & VCM).
- (b) Increase in import duty on PVC resin from 7.5 % to 10%.
- (c) The huge gap in demand and supply for PVC resin in the domestic market.

During the meeting, the participants shared their inputs, which are summarized as below:

Inputs given by PVC Resin manufacturers:

1. Import Duty in developing countries on PVC Resin is higher than that in India.
2. Due to low Import Duty on PVC resin in India, it is not commercially viable to increase local production.

Inputs given by PVC Resin consumers / processors:

1. There has been no addition in capacity & increase in domestic production of PVC Resin in the last 10 years.
2. Very high Anti-Dumping Duty on imports was imposed on almost all sources/ countries supplying PVC Resin since the year 2008, and is still continued.
3. Regarding the higher import duty rates on PVC Resin in other countries as informed by PVC Resin producers, it was pointed out by the processors that the rates being informed are of specific countries where PVC Resin production is higher than consumption and they are net exporters of PVC Resin, versus India where local production is only 50% of the consumption.

The PVC Resin consumers emphasized that it would be highly detrimental for the PVC processing industry, if the import duty on PVC Resin was increased from 7.5% to 10% as they are already paying a higher rate for PVC Resin as compared to other countries.

After hearing all parties, the JS requested that data be submitted through the Council, for the preceding two years, comparing International prices of PVC Resin and the domestic prices of PVC Resin in India.

A meeting chaired by Shri Shyamal Misra, Joint Secretary, EP(CAP) Division, Department of Commerce was held to seek Council's inputs on the following in order to boost India's plastics exports to ASEAN countries in the long-term, and to USA and China in the near-term due to the escalating trade war between them.

- Specific reasons for low export of plastics products to the ASEAN region (reasons could be tariff barriers, non-tariff trade barriers, problems with FTAs and others).
- Suggestions to scale-up value-added plastics exports to USA (for instance providing MAI grants to exhibitions in USA, increasing MEIS incentives for exports to USA, and others).
- Suggestions to scale-up value-added plastics exports to China (same as above).

The Ministry was flexible and keen on incentivising exports to both USA & China, including the relaxation of minimum 50 participants criteria at all exhibitions approved under the MAI scheme. The Ministry was agreeable on allocating MAI grants to exhibitors targeting USA & China, and on increasing MEIS incentives for exports to USA & China.

6.45 Stakeholders' consultation to identify potential impediments in trade with China and enhance exports, New Delhi, September 20, 2018

A meeting chaired by the Additional Secretary, Mr. Sanjay Chadha, with a brief attendance of the Commerce Secretary was held, during which he advised participants capitalizing on the opportunity to increase our exports to China on items where China had raised tariffs for import from USA.

The Council stated that major opportunities that existed for export to China as a result of high tariffs were in the agricultural sector, particularly for products such as soya meal, rape seed, rice, wheat, grapes etc. Tobacco was the other major item where a huge opportunity existed.

In the plastics and petrochemicals sector, the major opportunities were in plastic raw materials, specifically Polyethylene (LL-DPE), and PET films, and Naptha (HS Code 27101220). Reliance informed that they had supply constraints, and would not be able to suddenly ramp up their production capacity to further increase export of Polyethylene to China as they have already been exporting the same to China). With regard to Naptha, they would revert with their comments.

An important point made by the Additional Secretary was that if there were a tariff disadvantage on certain items exported to China, as compared to competitors, the exporters could seek an increase in the MEIS rates for those items provided that it is backed with some justification corresponding to increase in export to China.

Representatives from Reliance Industries and Polyplex Corporation Ltd. (major exporter of PET Films), and Mr. Sanjiv R. Dewan, Regional Director represented the Council at the meeting.

Mr. Anandani of Plexconcil raised the issue regarding reducing import duty by USA for import of FIBCs from India, and said that a representation to USTR had also been made in this regard. He also highlighted GST related issues and the notices received from DRI by some members under the pre-import condition of the Advance Authorisation Scheme.

In the plastics sector, opportunities for export to China had come up in plastic raw materials, particularly Polyethylene, and PET films as a result of the increase in tariff by China on import of these items from USA. The representative from Reliance Industries Ltd. informed that they had taken advantage of the opportunity, and significantly increased their export of plastic raw materials to China, over the previous month.

Some major issues highlighted by Plexconcil that needed to be urgently addressed were the Pre-import condition under the Advance Authorisation Scheme resulting in notices being sent by the DRI to exporters, and the lack of availability of PVC resin at competitive prices within the country, due to anti-dumping duties imposed on most of the supplying countries while domestic production capacity met only around 50% of the demand. It was also suggested that MEIS rates be enhanced for specific HS Codes to specific countries in the ASEAN region for the plastics sector, for which the Council had already furnished details to DOC. This was termed a short term measure to boost exports to the ASEAN region and help exporters overcome the duty disadvantage over competitors, particularly China, which has an FTA with ASEAN.

The JS stressed the need to analyse reasons for negative growth in some of the panels within the plastics sector, and take advantage of the Trade Infrastructure for Export Scheme (TIES) for boosting exports from various States in the country.

Mr. Arvind Goenka, Regional Chairman (North), Mr. Sribash Dasmohapatra, Executive Director and Mr. Sanjiv R. Dewan, Regional Director represented the Council at the meeting.

Report on Audit of the Financial Statement

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of THE PLASTICS EXPORT PROMOTION COUNCIL which comprise of the balance sheet as at 31st March, 2019, the statement of the Income and Expenditure Account for the year ended on that date and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, subject to notes to accounts regarding the disclosures of information relating to transaction and outstanding balances in respect of entity registered under MSME Act, which information is not disclosed as necessary information not available with the Association, the aforesaid financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ('Act') in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2019, its deficit for the year ended on that date.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards on auditing specified under section 143 (10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the code of ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the code of ethics.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

There are no Key Audit Matters Reportable as per SA 701 issued by ICAI.

Information other than the financial statements and auditors' report thereon

The Company's board of directors is responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility Report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company's Management Committee is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation and presentation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, companies' management committee is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The companies' management committee are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Report on other legal and regulatory requirements

The information as required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2016 ("the Order"), issued by the Central Government of India in terms of sub-section (11) of section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 are not applicable to the company.

As required by Section 143(3) of the Act, we report that:

- With respect to the other matters to be included in the Auditor's Report in accordance with Rule 11 of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us;
