Dear Sir / Madam,

Sub: Regarding Members' Inputs for Regulatory Compliance Reduction, Process Streamlining, and Decriminalization Recommendations.

We wish to inform you that the Hon'ble Commerce and Industry Minister has mandated the compilation of data from Export Promotion Councils (EPCs) to identify measures aimed at reducing regulatory compliances, streamlining processes, and providing recommendations for decriminalization, simplification, and technological advancements.

We acknowledge the importance of representing your interests effectively and strive to ensure that your voices are heard.

To address this matter and contribute meaningfully to the objectives set forth by the Ministry, we kindly request your valuable insights and inputs concerning the following authorities:

- DGFT (Directorate General of Foreign Trade)
- GST (Goods and Services Tax)
- CUSTOM (Customs Duties or Customs Authorities)
- RBI (Reserve Bank of India)
- CBIC (Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs)
- Any other

Your input on these vital areas will significantly contribute to formulating a comprehensive response to advocate for measures beneficial to trade and industry.

Members are requested to kindly share their insights, challenges, and recommendations concerning the mentioned authorities in the provided format (attached herewith) by the End of this week to facilitate the compilation of a consolidated and impactful submission.

We highly appreciate your active participation and commitment to fostering a more conducive environment for trade and industry growth.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Best Regards,

Bharti Parave
Asst. Director – Trade & Policy
The Plastics Export Promotion Council
