Dear Sir/ Madam,

Greetings from Plexconcil!

We have the pleasure in informing you that the PLEXCONCIL is organizing the India pavilion at RUPLASTICA (International Trade Fair for Plastics and Rubber) scheduled to be held from 21st to 24th January, 2025 at EXPOCENTRE, International Exhibitions and conventions, Moscow, Russia.

Trade Potential:

In 2023-24, India and Russia engaged in bilateral trade worth USD 65.4 billion. During the year, India's exports to Russia were valued at USD 4.3 billion while India's imports from Russia were valued at USD 61.2 billion. Within plastics, India's exports to Russia were valued at USD 103 million. India's plastics exports to Russia primarily comprise of Plastic raw materials (39%); Plastic films and sheets (24%); medical items of plastics (7%) and Writing instruments & stationery (6%). However, Russia's annual plastics imports are valued at USD 19 billion approx. and India's share in its imports is less than 1.0%. India's plastics exports to Russia have the potential to grow by USD 7.0 billion. Product categories, within plastics, that have immense export potential for export to Russia include: Consumer & houseware products of plastics; Plastic films and sheets; Medical items of plastics; Packaging items - flexible, rigid; Floorcoverings, leathercloth & laminates; Plastic pipes & fittings; Writing instruments & stationery; FIBC, Woven sacks, Woven fabrics, Tarpaulin and Cordage, fishnets & monofilaments.
